Joker: Oh, I got a live 1 here!

The musical score for 'Batdance' is presented in four systems. The first system includes a vocal line for the Joker and a piano accompaniment. The piano part begins with a 4-measure introduction in Eb major, 4/4 time, marked 'Medium Funk' and 'f' (forte). The introduction features a steady eighth-note bass line and a piano melody. The vocal line for the Joker enters in the second measure. The subsequent three systems continue the piano accompaniment, which consists of a consistent eighth-note bass line and a piano melody that evolves through the piece. The key signature remains Eb major throughout.

Gemini: Get the funk up! Choir: Bat - man.

The piano accompaniment for the first system consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of three flats (Bb, Eb, Ab) and a common time signature. It features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing chords. The bass staff follows a similar rhythmic pattern, providing a solid harmonic foundation.

Gemini: Get the funk up! Choir: Bat - man.

The piano accompaniment for the second system continues the musical theme from the first system. It maintains the same key signature and time signature, with the treble and bass staves featuring intricate rhythmic patterns and chordal support.

Gemini: Get the funk up!

The piano accompaniment for the third system continues the musical theme. It features a consistent rhythmic pattern in both the treble and bass staves, with the treble staff often leading the melodic line.

Joker: Go, go, go with a smile.

The piano accompaniment for the fourth system concludes the piece. It features a final melodic phrase in the treble staff and a corresponding bass line, ending with a clear resolution.
