

Foreigner's God

Words & Music by Andrew Hozier-Byrne

♩ = 90

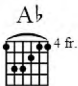

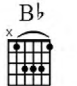

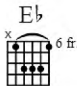

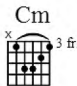

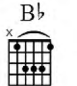

1. She moved with shame-less won-der, the per-fect crea-ture rare - ly
2. Won-der-ing who I cop - y, mus - ter - ing some ten - der seen, - charm, - she since some li - ar brought the thun - der, when she feels no con - trol - of her bod - y, the land - was god - less and free. Her eyes look sharp and feels no safe - ty in my arms. I've no lan - guage left to stead - y, in - to the emp - ty parts - of me, say it, but all I do is quake - to her, but still my heart is heav - y, with the hate of some oth - er man's be - break-ing if I try con - vey it, the bro - ken love I make to lies. Al-ways a well _ dressed fraud, who would-n't spare _ the rod, her. All that I've _ been taught, _ and ev - 'ry word _ I've got, _

nev - er for me. }
 is _ for - eign to me. }

Scream-ing the name of a for-eign-er's _ god, _

Cm 3 fr. Eb 6 fr. Ab 4 fr. Eb 6 fr.

scream-ing the name of a for - eig - ner's _ god, ____

Cm 3 fr. Eb 6 fr. Ab 4 fr. Eb 6 fr.

scream-ing the name ____ of a for - eig - ner's _ god, _____ the Ab 4 fr. Bb 6 fr. Eb 6 fr.

pur - est ex - pres - sion of grief.

Cm 3 fr. Bb 6 fr. Eb 6 fr. Ab 4 fr. Bb 3 fr. Cm 6 fr. Eb 6 fr. Ab 4 fr.

pur - est ex - pres - sion of grief.

Scream-ing the name of a for-eign-er's _ god, _ scream-ing the name of a

for-eign-er's _ god, _ scream-ing the name _ of a for-eign-er's _ god, _ the

1. pur-est ex-pres-sion of grief. 2. grief.

